

Satellite Radio is a significant step forward in radio broadcasting and technology, and I urge you not to pass or endorse any legislation that would impede its progress. Please do everything you can to let the market decide what it wants/ needs, rather than regulations imposed by the government.